How To Save Your Stuff From A Disaster

"As a self-help book it is the ultimate manual... This is a must have for anyone who prizes the family's photo, papers etc. ... even without a home disaster." Juanita Thinnies, Past Pres. Friends of the Historic Mission Inn, Riverside, California and genealogist.

"Thank you for How To Save Your Stuff from A Disaster. Its a great book and should sell like crazy!" Michael Clark, VP Marketing, Fitness Quest, Time Warner, Georgia

"If there is one book to have when there is a disaster... this is it! This will be a best seller." Andrew Linick, The Linick Group, Inc., New York

"This is such a great book! I'm going to have all my workers read it so we can earthquake proof my client's homes." Debbie Medlin, house cleaning services, mother of 3, California

"This informal, even whimsical book... is particularly valuable because of its practicality. It offers sound instruction rather than high minded scholarship to address the kinds of objects real people really have. This book is a valuable resource for reliable information." Linda Monka, Editor of Antiques West Newspaper, New York

"Your book is fantastic! I shoved a copy in a friend's face and said, 'you have to buy a copy of this book!' I'm going to get all my historical society and museum clients in the State of Wisconsin to buy a copy."

Mr. Tony Rajer, Conservator of Art, Madison, Wisconsin

"I think every gallery and collector should have a copy. I'm going to tell everyone about it... if fact, can I have another copy of the book for a friend?" ( I said yes) Joe Beeler, Cowboy Artist, Living Legend in Wyoming, Montana, Colorado, Arizona

"Am writing to thank you for my copy of your informative, amusing, and useful tome How To Save Your Stuff from A Disaster. I believe it will prove to be a useful addition to the literature in the field aimed at the lay audiences. All the best wishes to see it soon on the New York Best Seller List!" James Swope, Conservator of Fine Art, Florida

"I love this book! It's so easy to read. Now I know how to get started saving the stuff my kids bring home from school." Diane Del Vecchio, advertising agency executive, mother of 2, California

"People send us for review about 500 books a month. Of those, we pick a couple that we might want to represent. Your book is great. We are very excited! We can get this book into 8000 stores nationwide, immediately!"

Cori Beutler, Publisher's Distribution Center, Utah

"This is just the kind of book I was looking for. We'll keep it handy in our reference library and use it to answer reader's questions. I think all our readers should know about it." Linda Krueger, Editor Collector's News, Iowa

"In my region of the country, I am known as the 'Earthquake Lady.' Whenever the press wants to know something, I'm the one in front of the camera. I'm always getting questions about people's personal items and I've always had difficulty answering them. Now I can answer all their questions! I'm so pleased to have found this book!"

Dr. Joyce B. Bagley, Charleston Southern University, S. Carolina

"We hand out information to the public on disaster planning and I will be happy to let them know about your book. We will keep our copy for ready reference."

Heather A. Lyle, Emergency Planner, City of Vancouver, Canada

"Francis Bacon said, 'Some books are to be read, others to be digested.' This book surely falls into the category of the latter. This is a book that would make Lewis Carroll's Alice very happy: 'Lots of pictures and conversations'.. a jolly good read!"

Kenneth Winslow, Butterfield and Butterfield Auction House V.P./furniture expert. California, London
